

Cam Moir's Master Plan (Late 2025 - Consolidated Rewrite)

Philosophy & Vision (Late 2025)

My mindset at the end of 2025 is still ambitious but more structured. I believe in building enduring, value-driven

- Long-Term Focus: Prioritize sustainable growth and ownership. Measure success in decades, not quarters
- Efficiency & Innovation: Squeeze value from every resource. Use data and AI to optimize operations (Chef)
- Financial Discipline: Reinvest earnings into core ventures. Avoid dilution. Grow organically. Fund new phases
- Asset-Oriented Approach: Favor tangible assets (gold, long leases, owned businesses) over market volatility
- Learning & Adaptation: Track milestones, review monthly, pivot fast. Every build is an experiment.

In short, I'm building Streamables.live Holdings as a serious long-term company-grounded, practical, and built

In Conclusion

This master plan is my living roadmap. It connects every element-consulting, SaaS, IP, commodity, and real

Over the next 2-5 years, I will revisit this plan, report progress against milestones, and ensure every move ke
